

Ireland's National Inventory of Intangible Cultural Heritage

Latest News

Showcasing Ireland's Intangible Cultural Heritage at the National Ploughing Championships 2025

9 September 2025

Categories: News

The Department of Culture, Communications and Sport are delighted to welcome representatives from three practices inscribed on Ireland's National Inventory of Intangible Cultural Heritage to this year...

Read Me>

Showcasing Ireland's Intangible Cultural Heritage practices as part of National Heritage Week 2025

13 August 2025

Categories: News

The Department of Culture, Communications and Sport (DCCS) in partnership with the National Monuments Service (NMS) is delighted to support the delivery of fourteen Intangible Cultural Heritage (ICH)...

Read Me>

Ireland's Dry Stone Construction Receives UNESCO Recognition

6 December 2024

Categories: News

Ireland's practice of Dry-Stone Construction has been officially inscribed on the UNESCO Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity Ireland now has five cultural practices ins...

Read Me>

Showcasing Ireland's Intangible Cultural Heritage practices as part of National Heritage Week 2024.

13 August 2024

Categories: News

The Department of Tourism, Culture, Arts, Gaeltacht, Sport and Media (DTCAGSM) in partnership with the National Monuments Service (NMS) is delighted to support the delivery of eight Intangible Cultural...

Read Me>

Four Cultural Practices recognised as part of Ireland's Intangible Heritage

23 July 2024

Categories: News

• Minister Martin Announces State Recognition of Irish Set Dancing, St. Brigid's Cross Weaving, Gaelic Football and Ladies' Gaelic Football, the Irish Amateur Dramatic Tradition • Announcement brings...

Read Me>

Féilr na gCloch: The Festival of Stone on Inish Oírr

27 October 2023

Categories: News

From 14th to 17th September this year, the annual festival of stone, Féile na gCloch, took place on Inis Oírr. The theme this year: Lámha trasna na hEorpa, Hands Across Europe represented the cultural...

Read Me>

Féile na gCloch (Festival of Stone) 14th – 17th September 2023

13 September 2023

Categories: News

Féile na gCloch (Festival of Stone) was established in 2006 and takes place each year on the beautiful island of Inis Oírr. The Festival celebrates the craftsmanship, heritage, and the timeless beauty...

Read Me>

Celebrating the 20th Anniversary of the UNESCO 2003 Convention for the Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage

18 August 2023

Categories: News

Taking place from 12th to 20th August and focusing on the theme of 'Living Heritage', this year's National Heritage Week is sure to be an exciting week full of opportunities to explore our traditions,...

Read Me>

Safeguarding Ireland's Intangible Cultural Heritage

15 August 2023

Categories: News

Sarah Trimble works in the Department of Tourism, Culture, Arts, Gaeltacht, Sports and Media and is based in the International Cultural Policy Unit. One of her key areas of responsibility is Intangible...

Read Me>

Living Heritage takes centre stage for this year's National Heritage Week

15 August 2023

Categories: News

National Heritage Week National Heritage Week - an annual celebration of our natural, built and cultural heritage - is currently underway across Ireland, taking place from the 12th to the 20th of August.

Read Me>

Free Online UNESCO Course on Living Heritage and Sustainable Development

18 July 2022

Categories: News

UNESCO has launched a free online course on Living Heritage and Sustainable Development, which is open to anyone with an interest in these areas. The course is composed of six modules, each con...

Read Me>

Survey of ICH in Ireland – UNESCO Periodic Report 2021

16 May 2022

Categories: News

The Department of Tourism, Culture, Arts, Gaeltacht, Sport and Media is conducting a survey of Intangible Cultural Heritage (ICH) in Ireland. The objective of the survey is to obtain a clear picture o...

Read Me>

Projects – National Heritage Week 2020

11 November 2021

Categories: News

Intangible Cultural Heritage and Heritage Week 2020 As part of Heritage Week 2020, which takes place on 15 to 23 August, the Department of Culture, Heritage and the Gaeltacht is supporting the...

Read Me>

Performing, Promoting, and Preserving Ireland's Intangible Cultural Heritage

12 August 2021

Categories: News

Date: Thursday, August 19, 2021 Location: Zoom Webinar Time: 7pm Duration: 1hr 30 mins What is intangible cultural heritage? Why is it important? How can it be protected? How can digital record...

Read Me>

Minister Martin Announces State Recognition of Key Practices of Ireland's Living Cultural Heritage

4 August 2021

Categories: News

Minister Martin Announces State Recognition of Key Practices of Ireland's Living Cultural Heritage Minister for Tourism, Culture, Arts, Gaeltacht, Sport and Media, Catherine Martin TD, has exte...

Read Me>

18 inspiring projects celebrating Ireland's Intangible Cultural Heritage practices announced as part of National Heritage Week 2020

14 August 2020

Categories: News

An Roinn Cultúir,
Oidhreacht agus Gaeltachta
Department of Culture,
Heritage and the Gaeltacht

Friday, 14th August 2020 18 inspiring projects celebrating Ireland's Intangible Cultural Heritage practices announced as part of National Heritage Week 2020 As part of National Heritage Week 2020, tak...

Read Me>

Intangible Cultural Heritage and Heritage Week 2020 Open Call for Applications to showcase Ireland's Intangible Cultural Heritage

15 July 2020

Categories: News

An Roinn Cultúir,
Oidhreacht agus Gaeltachta
Department of Culture,
Heritage and the Gaeltacht

The Department of Culture, Heritage and the Gaeltacht is launching an open call for applications to showcase elements of Ireland's Intangible Cultural Heritage (ICH), for inclusion in the wide program...

Read Me>